Lexington, Ky., November 7.—J. B. Haggin has decided to send thirty-two thoroughbred mares to England for sale in December. They will leave here November 20.

The yearling sister to Ada Meade, in the barn of J. C. Milam, worked a quarter at the Kentucky Association course this morning in 23% seconds.

All Dreth's Scheme that failed.

San Francisco, Cal., November 7.—S. C. Hildreth has ambitious plans for his California campaign this season and will utilize the entire strength of his formidable stable in an effort to far exceed his showing of any previous winter in purse winnings. Last season he made no attempt to train and race Uncle, the best horse that he brought to California, but this winter every horse in his string will be called upon to help swell the Hildreth total in the winning owners' list. In important races he will not depend upon a single candidate, but will have at least two and possibly more starters to insure victory. In the furtherance of this plan he started four horses in the Opening Handicap yesterday, Montgomery, Fitz Herbert, Dandelion and Angelus. Hildreth has so many good horses available that he can carry out such a policy.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Samuel Duff, bookmaker, died at Louisville, No-G. Milsapp, who has been racing on the Texas circuit, has made application for nine stalls at Santa Anita Park.

Santa Anita Park.

Starter McKnight, who has been dispatching the fields on the Texas circuit, has made quite a name for himself and has become very popular with both the horsemen and patrons of racing in the south.

Dutiful, the old gray Faraday gelding, is going along like a two-year-old in his training at Santa Anita Park. Dutiful, despite his dickey legs, has always been popular with the Los Angeles followers of the sport, who never fail to back him when he starts.

A. F. Dayton intends to ship Jack Nunnally back to Santa Anita inmediately and will point him for the Pomona Handicap. Dayton figures on giving his star plenty of work this coming winter and, as Jack Nunnally is one of the kind that keeps on edge for a long time, expects him to capture quite few stake races.

The appeal of bookmaker William Davis to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals in a case where he was convicted and sentenced to an hour's imprisonment, has been dismissed in his behalf, the subsequent enactment by Congress of the law making betting a penal offense, rendering the case a matter of no consequence.

J. Pelter and his old stard by Edga King King

J. Pelter and his old stand-by, Elfin King, were mong the recent arrivals at Santa Anlta Park. Sam Bernard, Chief Desmond, Lancashire Lad and Sodfather are the other horses in the Pelter string. Chief Desmond proved to be a useful animal in racing in the northwest and Pelter thinks the Schreiber cast-off will do well in the selling races at Santa Anita.

Anta.

It is reported that Judge O. H. Sumpter of Hot Springs, Ark., who was supposed to be elected state senator and who was relied upon to bring about the restoration of racing at Hot Springs, has now been declared defeated by a decision in the courts and on a recount of votes, and his opponent, who was regarded as an enemy of racing, will probably be sent to the senate.

Of the faithful and hard-working men who prepare the horses for the bloodless warfare of the track, rotand A. J. Joyner was again the premier in that he sent seventy-one winners to the post as against fifty-eight credited to his closest competitor. John E. Madden. Only one other trainer, Jimmy Rowe, saddled as many as fifty winners, and the list of those credited with five or more is as follows:

In reviewing the racing of 1908 on the eastern tracks it is not surprising, when considering that the best horses in the land met in competition for the rich prizes offered in the stakes, that exceedingly fast time was made and many new records for the various distances created. To J. R. Keene's mighty son of Voter, the four-year-old, Ballot, credit is due for two of the greatest performances on the New York tracks this year. Ballot won the Suburban Handicap at Sheepshead Bay, June 19, running the mile and a quarter in the remarkable time of 2:03 with 127 pounds up, defeating such good ones as King James, Fair Play and Master Robert. On July 1 Ballot, with 126 pounds up, established a new American record for a mile and five-sixteenths when he won the Advance Stakes at Sheepshead Bay. Three other American records were shattered during the racing over the eastern tracks. Preceptor running four and a half furlongs over the straight course at Belmont Park in 51 seconds. Restiguiche, over the same track, reducing the seven and a half furlongs time to 1:31½, and Nimbus, at Empire City, erasing Roseben's time of 1:11½ for three-quarters of a mile and establishing a mark of 1:11½, which should resist all attacks for some time to come. One of the greatest displays of speed ever seen on a race track was witnessed in the running of the Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park, in which Gowan, although finishing third, set such a fast pace that the first mile was timed separately in 1:37 flat. The new and equaled records made during the season of 1908 over all the tracks under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club are as follows:

CLOSING DAY AT PIMLICO.

GREAT OUTPOURING VIEWS THE CONCLUSION OF EASTERN RACING OF THIS YEAR,

Superstition Takes the Chief Race and Sets a New Track Record-Four Races Fall to the Chelsea Stable Horses.

Baltimore, Md., November 7.—With the running of today's program, the racing season of 1908 in the east came to a close. The Maryland Jockey Club provided an excellent card for the occasion, the features of which were the Jockey Club Stakes at one mile and a half, the Amateur Cup and an owners' handicap steeplechase which was over the short course. The racing conditions were as near perfect as could be desired, the weather being warm and summerlike, while the track was fast.

The attendance was the largest of the meeting. Long before the time for the first race, standing room was at a premium and the overflow made themselves as comfortable as possible on the lawns. It was certainly a great day for racing in Maryland and a great windup to a season that has been marked with much trouble for the racing folks.

The public was in rare good form, five of the favorites winning. This meant that the ring lost beavily on the afternoon's betting. The Chelsea Stable, trained by young Preston Burch, was very much in the limelight, four of the afternoon's winners coming from this stable. Taboo won the opening race and Connaught Ranger, Aster d'Or and The Wrestier the last three.

The Jockey Club Stakes was at one mile and a half and was won by Superstition, which made all the pace and beat Queen of the Hills out a length. Today's victory was the third straight that Supersition has scored at the meeting and incidentalistation has scored at the form the score with a big head. He has improved wonderfully and ranked with the best horses racing here this fall.

BRILLIANT BEGINNING AT OAKLAND

Evebright Wins the Opening Handicap Before 10,000 Applauding Spectators.

Applauding Spectators,

Oakland, Cal., November 7.—Eyebright, at 10 to 1. captured the big one-mile Opening Handicap at Oakland today in 1:387. Eight of the best thoroughbreds in training, including the recent metropolitan turf celebrities and stake winners. Firestone. Dandellon, Angelus, Fitz Herbert, Montgomery and Royal Tourist started. The four-year-old Rubicon-Chartreuse II. gelding dominated the running throughout and could have broken all existing local records for the distance had he been forced to extend himself. Dandelion was the only one of the formidable Hildreth quartette able to run into a place and he only saved second place by a narrow and lucky margin from another outsider in Neva Lee. The winner had a big local following and the ring suffered heavy financial losses. Eyebright is a California-bred horse, was sold as a yearling for $200 to "Pop" Kennedy, a rubber for thirty years on local tracks. Kennedy disposed of the colt as a two-year-old to J. Davis, his present owner and developer. Eyebright never raced until nearly four years old and showed extraordinary form last spring. Davis, when asked ito price his horse, was ridiculed for wanting $3.500. The owner's judgment was amply verified by today's achievement, which was sensational in the extreme. His success was acclaimed by ten thousand spectators. It was the largest crowd that has ever attended any opening day of racing at Oakland. The condensed history of the Opening Handicap is as follows:

Public choices fared poorly. Smiley Corbett, which was a receding favorite in the closing race, being the only one to win.

An unexpectedly small and inadequate number of layers, twenty, did business. Thrice this number would have been insufficient to handle the wagers of the public today. Their names are: W. R. Engstrom. J. Glenn. F. Bain. J. Harlan, George North. Charles Bowman, W. Jackman. Sam Shaen. S. Bradley, Edward Soule, John Coleman. B. Meyers, Vanke, J. S. Kennedy, A. Koenigsberger, J. McCarthy, Sam Summerfield, E. T. Martin and Willie Applegate. Thomas H. Williams, who is leaving for her prosperity for the sport through the coming season. He received a telegram from A. Daingerfield during the afternoon wishing him success.

A. G. Blakeley's arrival with fourteen racers is expected on Sunday.

A. Walsh. Colonel W. E. Applegate's lightweight apprentice, was the outstanding feature in a Jockey way. The stewards, however, fined him $25 for reckless ridins.

ONE OF THE AMERICAN-BRED TWO-YEAR-OLDS NOW IN ENGLAND

JAMES R. KEENE'S B. F, 2, WEDDING BELLS, BY BEN BRUSH-RUNAWAY GIRL.

Wedding Bells is one of the young equine aristocrats now in England for a racing campaign in which she may achieve distinction next year. She is one of the band of exceedingly speedy fillies that formed a distinguished feature in contributing to the marked success of James R. Keene's formidable stable. She was not rated as being equal to Maskette, but is a cracking good filly and one of the type likely to grow and improve in the transition from two-year-old to three-year-old form. She belongs to a hardy, staying American family of thoroughbreds and if she should chance to carry off the Oaks at Epsom next summer there is still many a turfman who would make it the occasion for extolling the goodness of the descendants of Bonnie Scotland and his fine son, Bramble.

Wedding Bells is one of the young equine aristocrack of the Oaks at Epsom next summer there is still many a turfman who would make it the occasion for extolling the goodness of the descendants of Bonnie Scotland and raced much and her two victories were achieved in purses. But in running Sir Martin to a neck in the Saratoga Special and defeating Mediant, Fayette, High Private and Melisande she gave undeniable evidence of her high class. Her record and her pedigree are as follows:

TURFMEN HONOR CRICKMORE.

New York, November 7.—Funeral services were conducted over the remains of Henry G. Crickmore, the veteran racing official, in the chapel of Grace Church at ten o'clock Thursday morning. The funeral was to Fresh Pond and the body was cremated The burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

The little chapel was thronged with friends of the old racing man, and the floral offerings, sent by each racing association as well as by many personal friends of the grand old man of the turr, were banked about the casket in a protosion of beauty friends of the grand out man of the banked about the casket in a profusion of beauty and fragrance.

In the vast throng that paid a last tribute to "Krik" were several who knew him for his manifold charities, and some of the most sincere of the mourners who followed the casket to Fresh Pond were those whose path had been smoothed by the lone old man.

Among those who attended the services were: Magistrate Peter T. Barlow, J. G. Follansbee, S. S. Howland, Schuyler J. Parsons, H. M. Hitchcock, Clarence McDowell, Christopher J. Fitzgerald, W. L. Powers, C. Fellowes, V. E. Schaumburg, Phillip J. Dwyer, Fred Rehberger, George Gall, Lucien O. Appleby, Dr. J. O. Greene, Algernon Daingerfield, Addison Jerome, H. A. Buck, John Buck, W. H. Rowe, W. NEW USE FOR BELMONT PARK.

New York, November 7.—Belmont Park, according to current reports, is to be devoted in future to automobile racing and converted into a motordrome. automobile racing and converted into a motordrome. The success of the twenty-four-hour races conducted at the Brighton Beach race track by the Motor Racing Association this fall is said to have opened the eyes of August Belmont and others interested in the famous race track to the possibility for revenue still left open to it. Whether or not horse racing is to be banished entirely from Belmont Park has not as yet been decided. It is argued by supporters of the new plan that lovers of the sport may become reconciled to racing their horses and supporting horse racing at a deficit if this deficit can be overcome by the turning over of the race tracks to automobile racing during the intervals between meetings.

The fact that the Belmont Park track is two miles around is cited as offering an irresistible argument in its favor with automobilists and promoters of automobiling.

WINN'S VIEW OF EASTERN RACING.

Cincinnati, O., November 7.—Matt J. Winn, manager of the New Liouisville and Empire City race tracks, who arrived here today, is not overenthusiastic about the turf situation in New York. Said Mr., Winn: "All conjectures as to a continuance of the sport under any conditions are premature until the cases now pending are decided on appeal. These, of course, relate to oral hetting and were acted upon favorably by the lower courts in the early part of the season. Under any circumstances racing in the east has been set back for many years. If it is carried on at all next season it will be under conditions of no large stakes, purses of moderate value and limited speculation, even if that is permissible. At the present time the entire matter is one of guesswork and it will probably be three or four months before we will know where we are. The earl of high stakes, for the present, at least, is past. We will have to begin all over again and build up the prestige of the sport as best we can."

MAY PUT FOREIGNERS UNDER PROBATION.

A dispatch says the French Jockey Club has under consideration the rule which is intended to bar foreign horsemen from training or riding in France. The rule reads as follows:

"No trainer or jockey will be granted a license who has not been a resident of this country for the past three years."

It is suggested that the French turf authorities fear an invasion of American horses and horsemen. Fred Burlew and Frank O'Neill, who are now located in France, where they expect to train H. B. Duryea's horses, would be affected by this rule. There in France for half a dozen years or more, among them William Duke, who trains for W. K. Vanderbilt, Engene Leigh, who has been prominent as a rule with the control of steeplechase horses, and N. Turner and Henry Spencer, former lockeys, but now trains successfully. These, of course, are not affected. William Duke has been very successful with the thorses of W. K. Vanderbilt, who this year won the Grand Prix and leads in the list of winning owners.

Wintergreen Wins the Handicap for Two-Year-Olds -Review Case Again Postponed-No Extension of the Meeting.

Cincinnati, O., November 7.—The second largest attendance of the present meeting was on hand this afternoon to witness the racing. Secretary Maginn had arranged a diversified card, which included two handicaps, one at a mile and a furlong and one for two-year-olds at five and a half furlongs. Both attracted some good horses and spirited contests, Favorites fared well, four choices proving successful. As a result of the successes of the choices the fifteen layers experienced the worst session of the present meeting.

Favorites fared well, four choices proving successful. As a result of the successes of the choices the fifteen layers experienced the worst session of the present meeting.

T. P. Hayes' Redgauntlet proved best in the feature race and won by a good margin, the contention at the end coming from the outsider, Financier, which showed a smart performance by easily overtaking Gliding Belle in the stretch drive for second place, Old Honesty again rau disappointingly and trailed the leading trio. The two-year-old handicap went to J. B. Respess' speedy Wintergreen, which led for the entire trip and beat Mabel Henry. All Red, the top weight, was not good enough to concede the weight set, but recorded a splendid performance by outstaying Alice for third place in a sharp last furlong drive.

The only unpleasant feature of the afternoon came with the running of the fifth race, when Please forced Director to a hard drive to get up in the last stride. In her last previous start, when favorite, Please ran a distant last in company that was inferior to that she met today. The judges made an inquiry as to her poor showing on that occasion and seemingly were satisfied with the explanation her trainer advanced. In the light of her good performance today she can be at least put down as an in-and-out racer.

Orena was made the medium of a betting coup in the third race and made good in declsive style after leading throughout. The backers of the filly were extremely lucky, however, to land their wagers, as had Palamon got away with the others, he would have won and showed it by finishing a nose back of Warner Griswell for second place.

Alma Dufour, meeting with no interference today, made a show of her opposition in the closing race and came away in the stretch from Water Cooler and The Shaughraun in a canter. Home Run again disappointed by failing to land the opening vace, for which he was the favorite. Buffons, coming with a rush in the last furlong, beat him to the finish by a big margin.

Fred Gerhardy, secretary of the Almendar on account of numerous requests from norsemen at extension.

Fred Gerhardy, secretary of the Almendares track in Havana, was an arrival this afternoon and was besieged for stable room by horsemen intending to race in Cuba this winter. Mr. Gerhardy predicts a great season of racing in the Cuban capital, also for Tampa. He expects that nearly 200 horses will be sent to Havana from here. Nugent Bros. have signified their intention of shipping thirty-five horses to Havana at the close of this meeting.

L. Wheatcroft, of the St. James Stable, purchased Miss Sain this afternoon for the reported price of $4.000.

J. W. May shipped Tom Dolan, his only remaining racer, to his farm in Lexington to be turned out for the winter.

T. C. McDowell's string of racers were shipped to Ashland Farm tonight, where they will be turned out until spring racing begins. J. H. McCormick will not ship here as expected. He had figured on an extension here.

The stables of Albert Simons and E. R. Bradley arrived today from New York. In Simons' lot were woodlands, Merry Gift, Gretna Green and Midshipman Easy. Among the Bradley collection were Bad. News and Black Mary. Mr. Bradley remained in the east.

The case of the Latonia Jockey Club against the News and Black Mary. Mr. Bradley remained in the cast.

The case of the Latonia Jockey Club against the Kentucky State Racing Commission in the Covington Circuit Court, has been postponed indefinitely. This was due to the fact that Judge McQuown, representing the commission, desired time in which to look over the affidavits of turfmen submitted by Harvey Myers, attorney for the plaintiff. Judge McQuown's wife is seriously ill, so it is not expected that the case will come to trial for some days yet.

At a sale of horses in the paddock before the racture, the following were disposed of: Dunyegan, $316, Nugent Bros.; Banrida, $50, Nugent Bros.; Reid.

OAKLAND AND SANTA ANITA IN HARMONY.

Angeles, Cal., November 7 .- With the opening at Oakland today, the California racing season for 1908 and 1909 was inaugurated. Less than three weeks later the Santa Anita gates will be thrown open and the two greatest meetings ever held in 1908 and 1909 was inaugurated. Less than three weeks later the Santa Anita gates will be thrown open and the two greatest meetings ever held in that state will be the center of attraction for the lovers of the thoroughbred from all parts of the country. While the stake offerings at Oakland are of a larger number and of greater monetary value than those offered by the Los Angeles Racing Association, and while better action is probably to be had in the betting ring there, still the superior climatic conditions of Santa Anita will attract quite a large number of visiting horsemen. The big stables that will make Areadia their permanent quarters will not be greatly inconvenienced in regard to stake engagements at Oakland, for the trip from one track to the other is a mere detail, and past performances record the fact that horses lose nothing in condition by making the short journey.

This business of changing scenery for thoroughereds is a particularly good thing all around. For one thing, it serves to make the betting a bit more brisk, for the regular form players are slightly out of line when a horse from another track comes along to compete with those they have seen in actual performances. Then, again, it serves to promote more congenial relations between the two tracks and this year especially should these relations be more cordial than ever before. The thought of what racing has suffered at the hands of Governor Hughes in New York and the Locke bill in Louisiana, should be the factor in harmonizing the interests of the two California tracks.

SENDING AMERICAN MARES TO ENGLAND.

Lexington, Ky., November 7.—J. B. Haggin has decided to send thirty-two thoroughbred mares to England for sale in December. They will leave here November 20.

The yearling sister to Ada Meade, in the barn of J. C. Milam, worked a quarter at the Kentucky Association course this morning in 23% seconds.

A. F. Dayton intends to ship Jack Nunnally back to Santa Anita immediately and will point him for the Pomona Handicap. Dayton figures on giving his star plenty of work this coming winter and, as Jack Nunnally is one of the kind that keeps on edge for a long time, expects him to capture quite a few stake races.

The appeal of bookmaker William Davis to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals in a case where he was convicted and sentenced to an hour's imprisonment, has been dismissed in his behalf, the subsequent enactment by Congress of the law making betting a penal offense, rendering the case a matter of no consequence.

J. Pelter and his old stand-by, Elfin King, were a matter of no consequence.

J. Pelter and his old stand-by, Elfin King, were among the recent arrivals at Santa Anita Park. Sam Bernard, Chief Desmond, Lancashire Lad and Godfather are the other horses in the Pelter string. Chief Desmond proved to be a useful animal in racing in the northwest and Pelter thinks the Schreiber and the pelter string.

It is reported that Judge O. H. Sumpter of Hot Springs, Ark., who was supposed to be elected state senator and who was relied upon to bring now been declared defeated by a decision in the courts and on a recount of votes, and his opponent, who was regarded as an enemy of racing, will probably be sent to the senate.

MONETARY RETURN OF EASTERN RACING.

Enormous Falling Off in Winnin York Tr

From some points of view the money yield of the New York racing field for 1908 was not so bad, but in comparison with 1907 it was something to be viewed with sorrow by horsemen and lovers of racing in general. In 1907 the aggregate of money distributed among horse owners from the New York tracks was $2,617.402. This year it was $1,582,871, the falling off being the enormous sum of $1,024,531, an almost appalling destruction of income to a body of men as worthy as any equal number engaged in any other pursuit than the turf. The falling off was general, no club escaping, and one, the Buffalo Racing Association, giving no meeting.

Yet, the sum that was raced for was more than was hung up at all of the tracks of the United States thirty years ago and really ample for the uses of racing as a sport. It is only in the commercial side of racing that there is loss and it is a truth that racing, as an open-air diversion, has been too much dominated of late years by commercialism. Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Jackson and Clay were great Americans who delighted in racing, but it was as a sport and the idea that men should make their living by racing horses was not thought of in their days, nor, indeed, until of late years. It now seems that in some measure the sport must be taken back to its place as a diversion purely. It may be that the rude shock administered by Governor Hughes will in the long run prove beneficial in the way of forcing a reorganization of the racing fabric on another basis than that of dollars and cents.

The following table shows in detail the aggregate of money won in 1907 and 1908, the minor meetings of the Maryland Hunt Clubs and at Jamestown in 1908 being included for convenience:

In reviewing the racing of 1908 on the eastern tracks it is not surprising, when considering that the best horses in the land met in competition for the rich prizes offered in the stakes, that exceedingly fast time was made and many new records for the various distances created. To J. R. Keene's mighty son of Voter, the four-year-old, Ballot, credit is due for two of the greatest performances.

on the New York tracks this year. Ballot won the Suburban Handicap at Sheepshead Bay, June 19, running the mile and a quarter in the remarkable time of 2:03 with 127 pounds up, defeating such good ones as King James, Fair Play and Master Robert. On July 1 Ballot, with 126 pounds up, established a new American record for a mile and five-sixteenths when he won the Advance Stakes at Sheepshead Bay. Three other American records were shattered during the racing over the eastern tracks. Preceptor running four and a half furlongs over the straight course at Belmont Park in 51 seconds. Restiguieth, over the same track, reducing the seven and a half furlongs time to 1:31½, and Nimbus, at Empire City, erasing Roseben's time of 1:11½ for three-quarters of a mile and establishing a mark of 1:11½, which should resist all attacks for some time to come. One of the greatest displays of speed ever seen on a race track was witnessed in the running of the Jerome Handicap at Belmont Park, in which Gowan, although finishing third, set such a fast pace that the first mile was timed separately in 1:37 flat. The new and equaled records made during the season of 1908 over all the tracks under the jurisdiction of the Jockey Club are as follows:

Dandelion was luckily and forwardly placed from the start, but could never get up and was a lucky second. Neva Lee, away badly, trailed for half the journey and closed an immense gap in the last half of a cracking effort. Firestone, from a slow start, had rough usage on the first turn and was shuffled back in the third quarter, then made up much ground and ran a grand race. Montgomery, bumped on the first turn, was well up to the stretch, then dropped out. Angelus quit after nearest pursuit of the winner for six furlongs. Royal Tourist was nearly thrown on the first turn. Fitz Herbert was badly interfered with on the first turn and never danserous.

Six to 1 against Maranui, which won by three-quarters of a length, one length dividing second and third, Time, 2:353.

On his previous form no one would have considered the son of Malatua and Grafin a likely winner of this important event, for last season two of his three successes were gained at "suburban" meetings in New South Wales; he, in addition, accounting for the Rosehill Cup, one and one-quarter miles, which he won by three lengths. In the A. J. C. berby, however, Maranui was sixth in a field of seven, whilst he never ran at all as a two-year-old. His pedigree is:

The imported mare Scandal, to which Maranul traces, was a daughter of The Libel and Tirauna (bred in Belgium), by Inheritor, out of Eloisa, by Emilius.

Emilius.

There is now residing at Ascot Richard Morton, who for many years traveled to the various meetings as a race horse plater, and was a contemporary of the late Ben Land when meetings were held at Reading, Oxford, Egham and other places which have now dropped out of the fixture list. He celebrates his eighty-sixth birthday tomorrow, and except for failing eyesight the veteran, who is in the care of his son, is very well. Morton's father put the plates on Zinganee when that colt won the Ascot Gold Cup for Lord Chesterfield as long ago as 1829.

In the early eighties the trouble which brought about the dispersal of the Middle Park Stud enabled Auckland. New Zealand, to secure a mare that was destined to earn fame as the dam of one of the Knowsley mare. Mersey, which threw Carbine to Musket at Sylvia Park in the spring of 1885. On the day that the Middle Park Stud went to auction in 1880 Sir Hercules Robinson held commissions to buy for the Auckland Stud Company, and the chest-nut daughter of Knowsley and Clemence was one that took the eye of the ex-governor of New Zealand. Little did those present at the ringside at Kent on that bleak December afternoon dream that a great prize was in front of them when Mersey was led into the inclosure, for Sir Hercules Robinson had analy to bid 150 guineas to secure the mare destined to win undying fame in the Antipodes. Truly, the wind blew favorably for Auckland and the colonial turf the day that Mersey was knocked down to Sir Hercules Robinson. 60 00 00

If You Play the Races, Play to Win.

Don't play for fun and throw your money away any longer. But make it a business and win a little every day, and the only way you can do it is with a system. I have a system with which I have been winning from $10 to $20 per day for years. And I see no reason why you cannot do the same if you follow my instructions. You can play at race track, poolroom or handbook. The system is very simple and by following instructions it will win plack for you what you have lost in the past and place you on the road to prosperity. Price $5.00.
